2018 User Instructions

Downloading and Saving the ASTC Program

The ASTC program was developed in Excel, a common Microsoft Office application.

This is a spreadsheet program and may be able to be used by other spreadsheet programs.

Download from the website by going to:

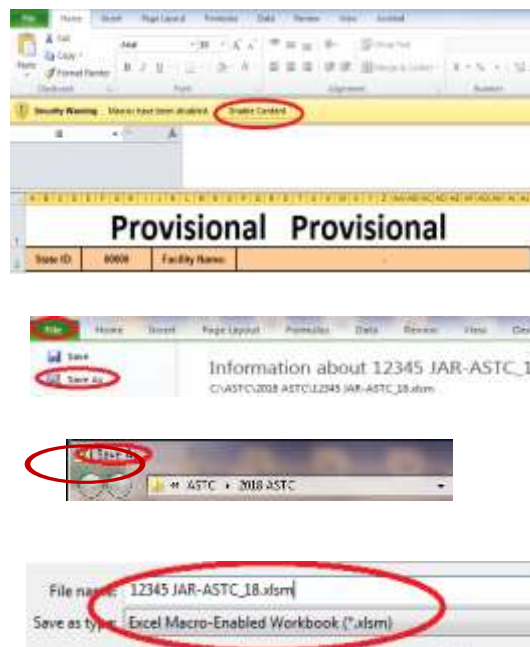

<https://www.tn.gov/content/tn/health/health-program-areas/statistics/health-data/jar/jar-astc.html>

Click on the first and second icon to read, save and print User Instructions and Tips to Avoid Common Errors. Click on the third icon to save (download) and open the program in Excel.

If you see a security warning, please respond Enable Content. If this step prevents you from opening the file, contact your IT consultant.

Save the Excel document to your hard drive, using File, Save As and navigating to a location on your hard drive where your work will be stored between data entry sessions. Name the file with your state ID and facility name and Save.

Navigating Within the ASTC Program

The Main “menu” provides a link (blue) to each of the schedules, the error list, and to the Administrator’s Declaration Page (electronic signature):

There is also a link to the “State ID” listing sheet. Please look up the five digit number that is used to identify your facility to complete Schedule A – Identification. The facilities are listed alphabetically by county name.

Entering Data

Preparation for Data Entry

<https://www.tn.gov/content/tn/health/health-program-areas/statistics/health-data/jar/jar-astc.html>

Click on the third icon, then save or print your blank form. It is suggested that you print a blank form on which to gather your information prior to data entry.

Whenever you leave the Excel program by using the X in the top right of the screen, a message will ask if you want to save the changes. Respond Yes or data you entered will be lost.

You may save the file prior to leaving the Excel program. Choose the same location on your hard drive to which you saved before (see page 1 of these instructions).

Always use the same file name to save. This will eliminate the possibility of having partial data in multiple locations.

Instructions and definitions are included on the form itself. Please read these carefully prior to completing each Schedule.

Also please refer to the document, General Information and Tips to Avoid Common Errors.

Data Fields

Only data entry fields (white) are available for selection. Other areas of the worksheet, such as gray boxes or areas outside the form itself are protected.

Error Detection

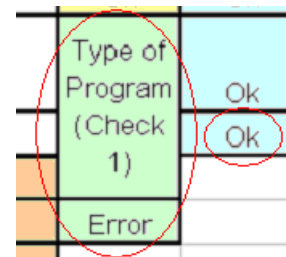

Potential errors are identified as data is entered.

If a field starts as “Error”, it will change to “OK” when you enter the data.

If you see a field changes from “OK” to “Error” the data you have entered may be causing an error, this will be cleared up when you have completed that section of the form.

All “Error” fields that remain may be corrected on the schedule form, or you may explain why the data cannot be changed in a comment on the Error sheet.

You may need to adjust the screen resolution, the % showing, or use the scroll bar at the bottom of the screen to be able to see all the error detection on the form screen.

Errors Sheets

Errors

All "Error" fields from the various schedules are listed in the Errors sheet.

You may go to the Errors sheet from the Main menu link or from the sheet tab at the bottom of any screen.

All lines marked "OK" in the first column indicate that the error description does not apply and the data is probably not in error.

The lines marked "Error" describe likely errors in the data that was entered with error number and error message.

A link is provided to return to the schedule involved to make a change in the data, if possible.
